Cberyl Floyd
Director of Bands - Hill Country Middle School
Conductor, Texas Middle School Honor Band

Cheryl Floyd is in her tenth year as Director of Bands at Hill Country Middle School in Austin, Texas. Prior to her tenure at Hill Country, she served as Director of Bands at Murchison Middle School, also in Austin, for eight years. Musical organizations under her leadership have consistently been sited for musical excellence at both local contests and national invitational festivals. Mrs. Floyd is recognized nationally for her educational and musical achievements at the middle school level. Under her direction, the Hill Country Middle School Symphonic Band performed at the 1998 Midwest Band and Orchestra Clinic in Chicago. In 1990 her Murchison program was the recipient of the coveted Sudler Cup Award presented to exemplary middle school band programs by the John Philip Sousa Foundation.

Mrs. Floyd routinely serves as a conductor of the University of Texas at Austin band camp faculty and has been a member of summer music faculties at Arkansas Tech University, Baylor University, Stephen F. Austin University, Texas Lutheran College, and the University of Minnesota in Minneapolis. She enjoys an active schedule as an adjudicator, clinician, author and guest conductor throughout the United States, having served as one of the first women guest conductors of the United States Navy Band in Washington, D.C. in September, 1998. Last year, Mrs. Floyd was named “Teacher of the Year” at Hill Country Middle School.

Lori Falcone
Director of Bands - Southwest Lincoln High School
Conductor, Nebraska Middle School Honor Band

Lori Payne Falcone is currently the Director of Bands at Lincoln Southwest High School in Lincoln, Nebraska. During 2001, she served as a Graduate Teaching Assistant for the University of Nebraska - Lincoln band program. Prior to this, she was the Director of Music at Palmyra Jr-Sr High School in Nebraska. She also served as Director of Bands and Choirs at Prairie Grove Junior and Senior High Schools in Arkansas. In Virginia, she was the Director of Bands and Choirs at Luray High School and the Assistant Director at Seneca Ridge Middle School in Sterling. Her various appointments have allowed her to teach a wide variety of grade levels, subjects, and ensembles. Mrs. Falcone has been an instructor for summer camps at Truman State University, the University of Arkansas – Fayetteville, and the University of Nebraska – Lincoln.

Mrs. Falcone was the assistant conductor of the Northwest Arkansas Youth Orchestra for one season. She has also guest conducted the Tri-City Honor Band in Pryor, Oklahoma and the East Central Nebraska Conference Class C Jr. High Honor Band in Nebraska. Last fall, she was a clinician for the Nebraska Music Educators Association state convention. At the University of Nebraska, Lincoln, she was an associate conductor for the Percussion Ensemble, Symphonic Band, and Campus Band. This spring, she was an associate conductor for the University of Nebraska Wind Ensemble on their tour as well as the Nebraska State Bandmasters Association convention performance. In addition to teaching, she is active as a percussionist, pianist, and organist.

Mrs. Falcone is a native of Vandalia, Illinois where she graduated from Vandalia Community High School. She received her Bachelor of Music Education degree in instrumental Music from Truman State University and has done post-graduate studies at James Madison University, the University of Arkansas – Fayetteville, and Peru State College. She received her Master of Music degree in Wind Band Conducting from the University of Nebraska – Lincoln in May of 2002.
Brad Feigles
Music Educator/Conductor - Kenosha Unified School District
Conductor, Wisconsin Middle School Honor Band

Brad Feigles is a music educator/band conductor for the Kenosha Unified School District where his duties include direction of the Bradford High School Varsity Band, co-direction of the Bradford High School Concert Band and teaching band lessons at five elementary schools. He is also active in the summer recreational bands, serving as a director of both the K-L Band and the Band of the Black Watch. Prior to his position in Kenosha, he was the Director of Bands at Walker High School in Walker, Louisiana where he was named the “1998 Teacher of the Year.”

Mr. Feigles holds a Bachelor of Music Education from Louisiana State University and a Master of Music with an emphasis in conducting from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee. His principal conducting teachers were Thomas Dvorak and Frank Wickes. While in Louisiana, he was also a regular participant in the Band Conductors’ Art Symposium with H. Robert Reynolds. He has conducted the UWM Youth Wind Ensembles and the University Wind Ensemble in concerts throughout the Scandinavian Countries and in Australia. A native of Lakeland, Florida, he now resides in Oak Creek, Wisconsin with his wife Kendra.

Dennis Gowen
Director of Bands and Director of Brass Studies - University of Mary
Conductor, North Dakota High School Honor Band

Professor Dennis Gowen is currently in his 16th year as Conductor, Director of Bands and Director of Brass Studies at the University of Mary, Bismarck, North Dakota. A native of Maine, he holds conducting, performance and teaching degrees from Western Michigan University and the University of Southern Maine.

Guest conducting and solo performance engagements have kept Dennis quite active professionally throughout the Upper Midwest/North Central region, Canada, and Maine. In February of 2000, Mr. Gowen was one of three regional conductors with the College Band Directors National Association’s North-Central Intercollegiate Band, a prestigious college-level ensemble comprised of students from a ten-state region spanning Ohio and Illinois to North and South Dakota. He has twice served as conductor for the Southern Maine Music Academy Concert Band, and has conducted performances for two major collaborations with the Northern Plains Ballet.

He currently serves as Past State Chair of the College Band Directors National Association and is an Executive Board member (and Past President) of the North Dakota National Band Association. Under his recommendation, “Band Music Reviews,” which he has authored for a decade, has become a featured article in each issue of the North Dakota Music Educator’s Journal. The University of Mary Wind Ensemble and Concert Band appear on the Fanfare & Flourishes CD produced in 1997. These ensembles have also served as featured performance groups at the State Teacher’s Convention.

In January 2001 he served as the first wind soloist with the newly-formed Missouri Valley chamber Orchestra in Bismarck. He currently serves as principal trumpet with the MVCO, and served as principal trumpet with the Bismark-Mandan Symphony for 13 seasons. The local jazz scene is another area in which he remains active. The Gowen Quartet, a “trad jazz” ensemble co-led by Gowen and University of Mary Jazz Professor Scott Prebys, enjoys playing a variety of venues.
Bruce Moss
Director of Bands - Bowling Green State University
Conductor, Ohio High School Honor Band

Bruce Moss has been Director of Bands at Bowling Green State University since 1994. Prior to his appointment at BGSU, he held similar positions at Eastern Illinois University and St. Cloud (MN) State University. Moss received his B.S. and M.S. degrees from the University of Illinois in 1975 and 1976. Prior to completing his Ph.D. in music education at the Ohio State University in 1989, he taught at York Community High School in Elmhurst, IL (1976-1987), where he served as Chairman of the Music Department and Director of Bands. His public school teaching career was honored in 1986 when he served as co-conductor, with Leonard Slatkin, of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra in a special series of concerts that featured his high school students. University and high school ensembles under his direction have performed at both state and national conventions, as well as at major high schools and universities throughout the United States and Canada.

Dr. Moss is a new music reviewer for The Instrumentalist magazine. Since 1980, he has been Music Director of the Wheaton Municipal Band in Illinois, a professional summer community ensemble regarded as one of the finest of its kind in operation today. During his unprecedented twenty-year tenure with this band, many of the nation’s prominent soloists and conductors have appeared as guests. This ensemble was recently featured in an internationally aired WGBH-TV PBS “American Experience” documentary, If You Knew Sousa. Moss organized and conducted a professional wind ensemble for the College of DuPage (IL), and has taught courses at Elmhurst (IL) college, The University of Iowa, The University of Illinois, The Ohio State University, and VanderCook College of Music. He was elected to membership in the American Bandmasters Association in 1994, and holds memberships in the College Band Directors National Association, National Band Association, and Ohio Music Educators Association, Music Educators National Conference, and numerous professional music fraternities. He frequently serves as a clinician, conductor and adjudicator throughout the United States and abroad.

Thomas Caneva
Associate Director of Bands - University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign
Conductor, Illinois High School Honor Band

Dr. Thomas E. Caneva is in his fifth year as Associate Director of Bands/Associate Professor of Music at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Dr. Caneva received his Bachelor of Science in Music Education from the University of Illinois, Master of Music in Wind Conducting from the University of Texas Austin, and Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Instrumental Conducting and Literature from the University of Colorado at Boulder.

At Illinois, Dr. Caneva’s responsibilities include conducting Symphonic Band I, directing the nationally renowned Marching Illini, Basketball Band, and overseeing all athletic bands. He also teaches music education courses in the UI School of Music.

Previous to his appointment at the University of Illinois, Dr. Caneva served on the faculties of the University of Colorado, Auburn University, and the University of Texas. His teaching career began at Lincoln-Way Community High School in New Lenox, Illinois.

In addition to university and public school teaching experience, Dr. Caneva has served as a conductor of community bands and has held the positions of Artistic Director and conductor of the Boulder (CO) Concert Band and Principal Guest Conductor of the Denver Concert Band. Under his direction, the Boulder concert Band performed at the 1998 Colorado Music Educator’s Association Convention in Colorado Springs, Colorado. Active as a guest conductor, clinician and adjudicator throughout the United States and Canada, Dr. Caneva has presented lectures/clinics at College Band Director National Association Regional and National Conventions, Music Educator’s National Association State conventions and the CBDNA Conducting Symposium. Dr. Caneva guest conducted at the CBDNA National Conference in Boulder, Colorado and at the 7th World Association of Symphonic Bands and Ensembles International Convention in Hamamatsu, Japan in 1995. Additional conducting appearances have included university, public school and community bands and wind ensembles at district, regional and all-state events.

In 2001, Dr. Caneva was elected to membership in the prestigious American Bandmasters Association. Additionally, he has held offices in the College Band Director’s National Association, the Big 12 Band Director’s Association, and is a past member of the Board of Directors of the Colorado Music Educator’s Association. He is currently the Illinois State Chairman of the National Band Association. Other honorary and professional affiliations include the Music Educators National Conference, Phi Kappa Phi, Pi Kappa Lambda, Phi Mu Alpha (honorary), Outstanding Young Men of America, Kappa Kappa, Phi (honoray) and the World Association for Symphonic Bands and Ensembles.
Thomas L. Dvorak
Director of University Bands

Thomas Dvorak is Professor of Music and Director of University Bands at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, a position he has held since 1979. A native of Wisconsin, he is a product of Wisconsin University Education. As Director of Bands, he guides all aspects of the band program, including the graduate conducting program. Since 1979, he has appeared with the UWM Bands throughout the United States, including the 1981 MENC Conference in Minneapolis, the 1981, 1984, 1987, 1988, 1989, 1992, 1993, 1994 and 1999 Wisconsin Music Educators Conference, in 1983 for the 22nd Annual meeting of the College Band Directors National Association in Atlanta, two performances at the North Central Divisional Meeting of the College Band Directors National Association, the first in 1991 at Michigan State University, and the second at the University of Nebraska in 1994, and two appearances for the Wisconsin National Band Association's Conventions, the first in 1997 in Stevens Point and the second in 1999 in LaCrosse. He has brought such distinguished composers as Joseph Schwantner, H. Owen Reed, Karel Husa, Samuel Adler, David Amram, Warren Benson, Fisher Tull, Anthony Iannaccone, David Holsinger, and Martin Mailman to the UWM campus, and along with his students, received warm praises for performances of their compositions.

He began his university teaching career in 1974 at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor as Assistant Professor of Music and conductor of the University Youth Wind Ensemble. He has received numerous awards including the “Outstanding Secondary Educator of America” in 1974, and has five times been presented the “Citation of Excellence” by the National Band Association for his achievements and contributions to bands. He continues an active involvement with younger-aged high school musicians, having served as Music Director of the University of Michigan Youth Wind Ensemble (1974-77), presently as conductor of the Milwaukee Youth Symphony Wind Ensemble Program, and as director of the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee Youth Wind Ensemble Program, a program he founded in 1983. He led the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee Youth Wind Ensemble in performances at the 1990 Minneapolis meeting of the North Central Division of the College Band Directors National Association and for the National Band Associations 8th and 9th Biennial Conventions at Northwestern University, Evanston, IL.

Professor Dvorak maintains an active guest conducting and lecturing schedule throughout the nation and abroad, having appeared at universities, various All-State Bands and Inter-Collegiate Bands in the United States, England, Belgium, France, Japan, Canada, and Australia. His biography is listed in the International “Who's Who in Music” and “Who's Who Among America's Teachers” and he is the author of many articles concerning repertoire, composers, and conducting. He is the principal author of a repertoire series for school bands entitled “Best Music for Beginning Bands, Best Music for Young Bands, and Best Music for High School Bands/Wind Ensembles” published by Manhattan Beach Music, NY. He is co-editor/author of "Teaching Music Though Performance in Band, Volume IV" published by GIA Publications, Chicago. He is active in various professional associations including both NBA and CBDNA. Within NBA, he has served on the Executive Board as Representative-at-Large and for 12 years as Chairman of the Band Composition Contest. He is past President of the North Central Division of the College Band Directors National Association (1990-1992) and past 2nd Vice President of the National Band Association (1990-1992).

In January 1994, he became the first American conductor to conduct at the University of Laucenston's Summer Music School in Laucenston, Tasmania. During the same period, he led the Conducting Symposium for the Australian Band and Orchestra Association in Melbourne, Australia. In the summer of 1996, he led the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee Symphony Band/Wind Ensemble in a concert tour of Australia and Hawaii including a performance for the Australia Band and Orchestra Association's National Convention held in Melbourne.

Finally, Professor Dvorak is active in wind ensemble and band recording projects with his university ensembles. Through this venture, he has recorded the repertoire accompanying the "Teaching Music Though Performance in Band, Volume IV" as well as a series entitled "Classics for Wind Ensemble/Symphony Band" and Volumes I, II, and III.
Gregory Flint
Adjunct Professor of Horn
Honor Band Festival Soloist

Gregory Flint is the Adjunct Professor of horn at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee. He is an active artist in the Chicago and Midwest area. He currently is principal horn with the Elgin Symphony, Chicago Opera Theater, Present Music of Milwaukee and the Fulcrum Lyric Opera of Chicago, Honolulu Symphony, Key West Symphony, and the Ravinia Festival Orchestra. Additional orchestral experience includes two full seasons as a member of both the Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra and Grant Park Festival horn sections. Engagements at Lyric Opera have included several on-stage appearances, and the complete Wagner “Ring” cycle conducted by Zubin Mehta.

A busy chamber musician, Gregory is a founding member of the Asbury Brass Quintet, and hornist with the Chicago Brass Quintet. He has recorded and toured internationally with both ensembles. As a soloist, he recently appeared as guest artist at the Trombones de Costa Rica International Brass Festival. Mr. Flint also performs for broadway musicals, commercial recordings, and has played with many jazz and popular acts including Frank Sinatra, Celine Dion, and Aretha Franklin.

He serves on the faculties of DePaul University and the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, and is presently coordinator of brass chamber music at Northwestern University. Northwestern is his alma mater, where he received a Bachelor of Music in 1985.
