First Suite in F
Thom Ritter George

This charming suite is based upon originally conceived sea songs. Each song captures the flavor of sea chanteys in that they are humorous, dance-like, melodic, and with great spirit. The final movement, "Rumba," captures the spirit of Navy men having fun dancing in a South American sea port, while the opening movements are more characterized as a march, followed by a lilting six-eight country dance.

Thom Ritter George spent his early career with the United States Navy Band. He wrote the First Suite in F while serving in the Navy Band, writing the piece for the fiftieth anniversary of the Navy Band. Subsequent to his Navy career, Mr. Ritter George has occupied the position of Professor of Music at Idaho State University.

Lagan Love
Luigi Zaninelli

Lagan Love is based on a traditional Irish Folk song entitled "My Lagan Love." The Lagan River flows through Lisburn County in Northern Ireland and has been the subject of many songs of that country. Little is known of the genesis this particular song though it is one of the most popular traditional songs of Ireland.

Where Lagan stream sings lullaby, there blows a lily fair
The twilight gleam is in her eyes, the night is on her hair
And like a lovesick lenanshee she hath my heart in thrall
Nor life I own, nor liberty for love is lord of all

Her father sails a running-barge 'twixt Leamh-beag and The Druim;
And on the lonely river-marge she clears his hearth for him.
When she was only fairy-high her gentle mother died;
But dew-Love keeps her memory green on the Lagan-side

And often when the beetle's horn hath lulled the eye to sleep
I steal unto her shieling lorn and thro' the dooring peep
There on the cricket's singing stone, she stirs the bogwood fire
And hums in sad, sweet undertone the song of heart's desire
Her welcome like her love for me is from the heart within
Her warm kiss is felicity, that knows no taint or sin
When she was only fairiy small her gentle mother died
But true love keep's her memory warm, by Lagan's silver side

Luigi Zaninelli, composer-in-residence at the University of Southern Mississippi, won the 1997 Mississippi Arts and Letters Award for "Three American Hymns for Soprano and Wind Ensemble." The New Jersey native, now living in Hattiesburg, Mississippi, was a student and an instructor at the Curtis Institute of Music, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, which sent him to Italy to study under the legendary Rosario Scalero. In addition to the Steinway Prize, he is a three-time Mississippi Institute of Arts and Letters winner.

They Stood at the Edge of the Sky

Roland Barrett

From _A Handful of Dust_ by Perry Eberhart:

The mountains were there when man came west.
Shoulder to shoulder, they marched tall out of the plains,
Their silent profile born of unheard fury and sound,
Their wrinkled brow washed by the snow of ages,
And whipped by the unheard winds of the millenniums.
Here volcanoes roared,
Storms were born,
First life crawled onto shore,
Mighty beasts lumbered over the land,
First man felt the sun's warmth briefly, and died.
Here in the mountains
All things lived and died.

This piece is written in honor of the brave men and women who faced incredible and overwhelming hardships as they explored and settled the (American) West - the pioneers who literally, "stood at the edge of the sky."

Masque

Kenneth Hasketh

The composer writes:
The _Masque_ has had a varied history, certainly a varied spelling ('masque', 'maske', even 'maskeling'). However, the historian E.K. Chambers in his book _The Medieval Stage_ defines the word in the following way: "A form of revel in which mummers or masked folk come, with torches blazing, into the festive hall, uninvited, and call upon the company to dance and dice."

The above description, I think, can also serve as a description to the piece. The main theme is certainly bravura and is often present, disguised, in the background. The form of the piece is a simple scherzo - trio - scherzo. Colourful scoring (upper wind solos, trumpet and horn solos alternating with full bodied tuttis) with a dash of wildness is the character of this piece --- I hope it may tease both player and listener to let down their hair a little.

Kenneth Hesketh was born in Liverpool in 1968 and studied at the Royal College of Music in London with Edwin Roxburgh, Simon Bainbridge, and Joseph Horvitz. Prior to attending the Royal College, Hesketh had already had commissions and performances by the Royal Liverpool Philharmonic Orchestra, the National Youth of Great Britain, amongst others. His catalog of works is widely diverse and includes The Circling Canopy of Night, for Sir Simon Rattle and the Birmingham Contemporary Music Group. Additional commissions received include works for and with the English National Ballet School, the BBC Philharmonic Orchestra, and the Endymion ensemble, Netsuke, for a piece written in honour of Queen Elizabeth II's 75th birthday celebration.

Variations on "America"

Charles Ives

trans. William Schuman

Originally written for organ when Charles Ives was only seventeen years old, this wonderful parody on "America" has all the musical hallmarks associated with Ives. It is witty, filled with tongue and cheek humor, and at the same time, musically charming. Following a brief statement of the tune, Ives follows with five variations. Within each variation, the tune of "America" can be clearly recognized. What changes from one variation to another are tempos, styles, modes, and the melodic rhythm.

This delightful Ives writing is a showcase for ensembles such as UWAY-I. While technically demanding the music is crafted in such a manner to allow young artist players the unique opportunity to experience Ives.

"Country Band" March

Charles Ives

trans. James Sinclair

This marvelous composition is Ives at his very best! Typically, it is filled with quotations including "Arkansas Traveler," "British Grenadiers," "Columbia, Gem of the Ocean," and more. The requirements are, of course, to listen carefully for the quotations in his "poly-everything" technique.

The biggest challenge of the player is to communicate the important melodies in the face of this complex chaos and seemingly unendless disarray of rhythm and melody.

This is Ives composition of 1903, four years after his graduation from Yale. It remains very idiomatic of his style, a parody of the realities of performance by a country band.

The Youth Wind Ensembles at the University of Wisconsin - Milwaukee

The University of Wisconsin - Milwaukee Youth Wind Ensemble program is nationally and internationally recognized as one of the finest of its kind. Founded in 1982, the organization is sponsored by the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee Department of Music and University Bands in cooperation with the Wisconsin high school band programs and their conductors. The acronym UWMYWE (U-Way) closely identifies the Youth Wind Ensemble/Jazz Ensemble as an integral part of the UWM Department of Music. The underlying philosophy and purpose of UWMYWE is to provide talented high school musicians with the opportunity to perform with their peers the highest caliber of wind ensemble/jazz ensemble repertoire. UWMYWE is an extension and enhancement of a student’s high school band experience. In 1991, the program expanded to include the jazz medium. Under the direction of Curt Hanrahan, participating students in the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee Youth Jazz Ensemble (UWMYJE or U-Jay) are afforded the opportunity to perform in one of the finest groups of its kind. In 1998, a Youth Percussion Program was added under the direction of Carl Storniolo.

Now in its 22nd year, the UWMYWE program has grown substantially. Today, there are two wind ensembles of approximately 70 student musicians, two 23 member jazz ensembles, and two percussion ensembles. Since its inception, the ensemble program has been active in concerts both on and off the university campus. UWMYWE was chosen to perform for the Wisconsin State Legislature to signify the opening of “Music In Our Schools Week” (Winter 1983); toured England and Europe (Summer 1985) where they were the featured youth wind ensemble at the famed Glamorgan Music Festival held in Swansea, Wales; performed for the Wisconsin Convention of the National Band Association (Winter 1986); the Wisconsin Music Educators Convention (Fall 1987, 1990, 1993), toured Japan in Summer 1988, where they were the only American Youth Wind Ensemble featured in the Kummamoto World Music Festival and the Fourth Annual International Youth Musicale at Shizouka. In April of 1989, UWMYWE made its Carnegie Hall debut, performing on a Carnegie series. They have performed for the College Band Directors Association meeting in Minneapolis in February of 1990 and in June of the same year, performed at the 8th Biennial Convention of the National Band Association at Northwestern University as the featured demonstration group at a clinic given by Professor Dvorak. UWMYWE has toured the continent of Europe five additional times, in 1990, 1992, 1994, 1996, and 2000, and the British Isles in 1998. The combined ensembles of U-Way I and II toured both Western and Eastern Europe in July of 1992, giving concerts to delighted audiences in the United Germany, Czechoslovakia and Austria, winning First Prize in the Youth Wind Ensemble category at the prestigious Vienna International Youth Music Festival.

In addition to its many performance and tours, distinguished composers, performers and conductors such as Samuel Adler, David Amram, Warren Benson, David Holsinger, Karel Husa, Marvin Stamm, Dennis Najoom, Steve Houghton, Anthony Iannacone, Fisher Tull, Ron Nelson, Frederick Fennell, and John Paynter have conducted and performed with UWMYWE, bringing a wide exposure of contemporary band/wind ensemble performance from among some of our finest composers and conductors for these mediums. In 1990, UWMYWE began a commissioning project. The first composition in this project, David R. Holsinger’s Excerpts from the Light Opera: Baron von Gmway’s Revenge!, was performed on the Tenth Anniversary concert in 1992. Later commissionings have included Portrait of the Duke by Charles Sayre and Isle Triptych by Bernard Gilmore. The first jazz commissioning was completed in 1993, entitled The Modal House of Hip Hop by Steve Wiest.
