Hosted by the UW-Eau Claire Collegiate Chapter of the National Band Association
Welcome!

On behalf of the students and faculty of the Department of Music and Theatre Arts, I am pleased to welcome you to the 2006 Indianhead Honors Band Concert. The region's most talented high school musicians are part of the ensemble you will hear this evening. Congratulations to tonight's performers and to the high school music programs they represent.

Also performing on tonight's program will be the UW-Eau Claire Wind Symphony. This ensemble offers students the opportunity to perform a wide range of challenging literature for wind ensembles. The ensemble is but a part of the large, well-established programs of study in the Department of Music and Theatre Arts. The many choral and instrumental groups perform music ranging from traditional music for choir, orchestra, wind ensemble to jazz, opera and musical theatre.

Over four hundred and forty majors and minors in the Department of Music and Theatre Arts are working toward degrees in music education, performance, composition, music theory, creative and technical theatre, and dance. National recognition for the quality of UW-Eau Claire and the Department of Music and Theatre Arts has come in the form of mentions in U.S. News and World Report's annual College Guide, DownBeat magazine, and the American Choral Director's Association. Know that you are always welcome on our campus and in the department. Come and enjoy one of the many concerts, recitals, and main stage theatre productions and experience for yourself the UW-Eau Claire difference!

Brian Grivna, clarinet, began performing at age 12 as Young Artist clarinet soloist with the Minnesota Orchestra. He added saxophone and flute the following year and by age 15 was subbing for his teacher in commercial dance bands. After receiving his B.A. in English literature from Dartmouth College, he worked in jazz, commercial, and theater music before joining the Buddy Rich band in 1971. He toured with Rich for almost two years, recording four RCA albums and several television shows.

Grivna was the staff woodwind performer for the Guthrie Theatre from 1973 to 1983. He left the Guthrie to freelance and teach, recording numerous CDs with both the Saint Paul Chamber Orchestra and Minnesota Orchestra. Brian was privileged to tour Japan and Europe with Minnesota Orchestra under Eiji Oue, and Europe under Osmo Vänskä. In 2002 he toured the West Coast with Bobby McFerrin and the SPCO, performing in the orchestra and jamming be-bop tunes with Bobby during his solo concert segment. Mr. Grivna teaches at the University of Minnesota and in his home studio, performs jazz at local clubs and plays saxophone and clarinet for the Saint Paul Chamber Orchestra, the Minnesota Orchestra and the Children's Theatre Company in Minneapolis. He also plays in pit orchestras for traveling musicals such as The Lion King, Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat and Victor/Victoria.

Richard Mark Heidel is Director of Bands and Associate Professor of Music in the Department of Music and Theatre Arts at the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire where he conducts the Wind Symphony, teaches courses in conducting and repertoire, supervises student teachers, serves as advisor to the National Band Association-Collegiate Chapter, and coordinates the UW-Eau Claire band program. Under his direction, the Wind Symphony has performed at the Wisconsin Music Educators Association State Conference, Illinois Music Educators Association All-State Conference, National Band Association-Wisconsin Chapter State Convention as well as on annual concert tours throughout Wisconsin and Minnesota.

Dr. Heidel maintains a busy schedule as a guest conductor, adjudicator, clinician, guest lecturer, trumpet performer, and custom drill designer. He currently serves on the Board of Directors of the National Band Association, NBA-Wisconsin Chapter, and the International Music Camp (Honorary Member). Heidel has served as guest conductor, adjudicator and clinician in Alaska, Texas, New Mexico, Georgia, Nebraska, Illinois, Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Colorado, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Washington, D.C., and Ontario, Canada. In 2003, Heidel served as an adjudicator for the Limerick International Marching Band Competition and the 100th St. Patrick’s Day Festival in Dublin, Ireland.
