Many thanks to the members of our audience who brought books today to donate to the Give-a-Kid-a-Book program.
In addition we would like to thank the Association of Student Social Workers who have organized the book collection.
Your gifts are a wonderful example that the holiday spirit thrives in our community.
Greetings from the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire

Welcome to our 33rd annual Holiday Concert – a tradition we are pleased to experience with you. This long-standing collaboration between the Department of Music and Theatre Arts and the UW-Eau Claire Foundation is our way of extending to the greater Eau Claire community the holiday season spirit of giving and sharing. The concert is made possible through the talents of more than 500 student musicians in seven ensembles conducted by members of our distinguished faculty.

As you may know, with more than 375 music majors, UW-Eau Claire has the largest undergraduate music program in the state of Wisconsin. A number of our ensembles have gained state and national recognition for their consistently fine performances. It is worth noting that many of the student musicians you will hear today are not music majors, but still devote many hours rehearsing and performing for the sheer joy of creating music.

That is one of the true hallmarks of a UW-Eau Claire education – the opportunity to experience the many aspects of university life – and to participate in programs that help to broaden a student’s experience beyond a particular major.

I am continually impressed by the talents and dedication of our students, faculty and staff. I hope each of you has many opportunities to enjoy what the university provides the citizens of our region.

On behalf of my wife Debi and the UW-Eau Claire community, please accept our heartfelt appreciation for your support – without you the university could not live up to our motto of Excellence. May your holiday season and the New Year be bright, healthy and enjoyable.

Sincerely,

Brian Levin-Stankevich
Chancellor

PROCESSIONAL

Personent Hodie ........................................... ............. arr. Lara Hoggard

Let youthful voices resound today, joyfully praising Him who is born for us, who is given unto us by the Most High God, and brought forth from a virgin.

He is born in the world, is wrapped in swaddling clothes and placed in a manger in a stable of beasts. He is ruler over all things.

Three wise men come, bearing gifts. They have found the Child by following a little star. Adoring the Lord, they offer Him gold, incense and myrrh.

Let all young choristers now sing as did the angels, praising Him who has come into all the world: “Glory to God in the highest!”

Symphonic Choir and Symphony Orchestra

Laudate Dominum........................................... Wolfgang A. Mozart
from Vesperae Solennes de Confessore
Mitra Sadeghpour, soprano

Praise the Lord all you nations; Praise Him, all you people.
For his loving kindness has been bestowed upon us,
and the truth of the Lord endures forever
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son and the Holy Spirit.
As it was in the beginning is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen

Gloria excerpt from Messa di Gloria ......................... Giacomo Puccini

You alone are the most high, Jesus Christ.
With the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father. Amen.
The Singing Statesmen

Cantate Domino.................................................. Vytautas Miskinis
Sing to the Lord a new song, and bless His name.
Sing to the Lord a new song, His wonders are among all people.
Sing to the Lord a new song, and play upon the string instrument.
Sing to the Lord a new song!

What Child Is This? ........................................... arr. Jameson Marvin
16th Century English Carol

Women's Concert Chorale

The Snow ........................................................... Edward Elgar
Laura Wenzel and Mary Heimerman, violins

Carol of the Bells............................................. M. Leontovick/Peter Wilhousky

Symphony Orchestra

American Holiday.............................................. Aaron Copland
from Buckaroo Holiday, Hoe-Down, and Appalachian Spring

Concert Choir

All My Heart This Night Rejoices....................... Z. Randall Stroope

Rockin' Jerusalem ............................................... André Thomas

Wind Symphony

Pie Jesu ........... Gabriel Fauré/Andrew Lloyd Webber/James Sudduth
"Merciful Jesus" from Requiem

Sleigh Ride........................................................... Leroy Anderson

Holiday Greetings from the University

Steven Tallant, Provost and Vice Chancellor – 5:00 p.m. Concert
Combined Ensembles and Audience

The Joy of Christmas ................................................... arr. Ross Hastings

This setting of familiar and beloved carols was commissioned for the Holiday Concerts by the University Foundation and the Department of Music and Theatre Arts in 1989.

1. ALL: Joy to the world, the Lord is come! Let earth receive her King. Let ev'ry heart prepare him room, and heav'n and nature sing . . .

2. CHOIRS: Away in a Manger

3. ALL: The first Nowell, the angel did say, was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay. In fields where they lay keeping their sheep, on a cold winter's night that was so deep. Nowell . . . born is the King of Israel.

4. CHOIRS: What Child Is This?
5. CHOIRS: Angels We Have Heard on High
6. CHOIRS: Silent Night

7. ALL: Hark the herald angels sing: “Glory to the new-born King! Peace on earth and mercy mild, God and sinners reconciled!” Joyful all ye nations rise, join the triumph of the skies, with angelic host proclaim: “Christ is born in Bethlehem!” Hark the herald angels sing: “Glory to the new-born king!”

8. CHOIRS: Still, Still, Still
9. CHOIRS: Break Forth, O Beauteous Heavenly Light
10. CHOIRS: O Come All Ye Faithful

Please respect the need for silence during performances. Our concerts and recitals are recorded. Coughing, beepers, electronic watches, careless handling of programs and other extraneous noises are serious distractions to performers and the audience. The use of cameras and recording equipment cannot be permitted.
