GUEST SOLOIST ANNA SKRUPKY

Anna Skrupky, a native of Turtle Lake, WI, is an instructor at the Music School of Delaware in Wilmington, DE. Prior to this appointment, she served as an Instructor of Music at the Lawrence University Conservatory of Music, taught at the University of Wisconsin-Rock County, and was a member of the University of Wisconsin-Madison Summer Music Clinic faculty.

A former member of the Civic Orchestra of Chicago and the MusiCorps chamber music program, Ms. Skrupky maintains an active freelancing schedule and, while living in Wisconsin, performed frequently with the Central Wisconsin Symphony as principal horn, the Madison Symphony, the Waukesha Symphony, the Beloit-Janesville Symphony Orchestra, the Dubuque Symphony, the Madison Savoyards opera company, the Con Vivo chamber ensemble, the Oakwood Chamber Players, and the Armory Dinner Theater. Additionally, she has performed live on Wisconsin Public Radio’s “Sunday Afternoon Live from the Chazen” series and premiered Greens, Blues, Reds for Horn and String Quartet by Douglas Hill.

Ms. Skrupky is currently a DMA candidate at the University of Wisconsin – Madison with a minor in arts administration. She received a Master of Music degree in horn performance and literature from Northwestern University and a Bachelor of Music degree in both horn performance and music education from Lawrence University. Her teachers have included Douglas Hill, Gail Williams, William Barnewitz, James DeCorsey, David Wakefield, RJ Kelley, and Kelly Schultz.

OUR CONDUCTORS

Kelly Schultz received a bachelor of music education from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. In addition, she received a master of music education with a minor in conducting from the University of Colorado-Boulder. While in Boulder, she had the privilege of studying with Dr. James Austin, conducting guru Allan McMurray and Dr. Mallory Thompson. Ms. Schultz has had the good fortune to guest conduct area school groups, as well as guest conduct the Suburban Concert Band. Her past professional affiliations include Music Educators National Conference and Collegiate Band Directors National Association. Ms. Schultz is currently teaching strings and Suzuki in four West Allis Schools. Previously, she taught at Nathan Hale High School and was an instrumental music teacher in the Turtle Lake School District.

Robert Rothwell is a graduate of UW-M and he earned his master degree from Northwestern University. He taught for 29 years at Mt. Prospect, Illinois. Mr. Rothwell plays professionally on both the piano and French horn. A private student of Henry Canitz, he played in the Milwaukee Pops Youth Band. Now retired, he plays in many bands and orchestras, including the Suburban Concert Band. He has twice been nominated for the Outstanding Teacher Award.

THE SUBURBAN CONCERT BAND HISTORY

Suburban Concert Band is in its 28th season of performing beautiful music and is composed of both professional and amateur musicians (ages 18-80) from West Allis, Wisconsin, and the surrounding Greater Milwaukee area. Howard Emerson organized the group in 1983 with the goal of bringing quality concert music to the local community. In 1985, Henry Canitz, director of the Milwaukee Pops Youth Band and a director in the West Allis-West Milwaukee Public Schools with many years experience, was appointed director until spring of 2007. The Suburban Concert Band performs an average of seven times each season from September through May and it prides itself in selecting music that is both challenging to the musicians and interesting to the audience.

MUSICIANS WANTED!

Additional musicians are wanted to expand our instrumentation. If you know of someone who currently plays, or played in high school or college, please tell him or her about our band and the fun and challenges we have with the music. We welcome adult musicians of all ages and from all communities throughout southeastern Wisconsin. For additional information please call 414-305-0319.
