Privacy Policy

White House of Music Employees and Agents

White House of Music, Inc., its employees and agents will not use, publish or distribute any photograph, video or other visual representation of a participant in the Music for Life Lesson program unless that participant or minor participant’s parent or guardian has first signed a Photograph Release; and will not knowingly disclose the identities of participants to any parties (except employees or agents of White House of Music, Inc., participants, guests or other such persons with a reasonable need to know), without the expressed written permission of the participant or minor participant’s parent or guardian. The nature of public performances makes it impossible for White House of Music, Inc., to ensure that participants’ identities will not be disclosed to those without a need to know, but every reasonable effort will be made to do so.

Permitted Camera Use

Still and video cameras are permitted at performances. White House of Music, Inc., has no control over the use or publication of the photographs and videos that may be made by participants and attendees. Participants, and minor participants’ parents or guardians, must be aware that parties not under the control of White House of Music, Inc., may publish and distribute photos and videos of performances, including posting on the internet at sites such as YouTube and MySpace. White House of Music, Inc., cannot be responsible for such use, publication and distribution.

Respecting Others’ Privacy Rights

If you take photographs or videos of rehearsals or performances, then please respect the security and privacy rights of others, and do not distribute the photographs or videos or post them on the internet without the knowledge and expressed permission of all who appear in the photos or videos. Do not disclose the names of performers or other parties that appear in your photos or videos.

Thank You!
